CAIRO, Dec. 20.—As many as 30,000 crack Italian troops, including rear-guard "suicide" squads, faced apparent annihilation or surrender at Italy's Libyan coastal base of Bardia today after being hemmed in by advance British armored columns.

Latest advices to Cairo said the swiftly striking British forces were drawing a ring of steel ever tighter around the Fascist forces trapped at the besieged town.

(Editor's Note: A British radio broadcast picked up by NBC in New York, said it was rumored, without any confirmation, that the advance British mobile units have cut the road linking Bardia, with Tobruk further west in Libya.)

Cut Off Retreat

(Should this prove true it appeared, the British have succeeded in snipping off the last major avenue of retreat which the Italians at Bardia might use in a retreat.)

Earthquake Shock In New England Area

(International News Service)

A New England earthquake extending as far as Canada in the north and Philadelphia in the south early today shook thousands of frightened householders out of their beds to the accompaniment of swaying floors and rattling china-ware.

The quake occurred at 2:28:22 this morning, according to officials at the Forham University seismograph laboratory in New York, and lasted less than half a minute.

Last 30 Seconds

Dr. L. Don Leet, in charge of the Harvard University observatory, fixed the time of the quake at 2:25 a. m. on the seismograph there and said it lasted about 30 seconds.

It was centered in the Connecticut river valley and its heaviest effects were felt chiefly in Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hampshire.

London Discounts Reports
Large Force Of Nazi
Troops In Italy

(International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Germany "undoubtedly" has loaned Italy huge transport planes to rush troop reinforcements to Albania in a desperate move to halt the Hellenic advance, but reports that 50,000 to 90,000 Nazi troops have arrived in Italy probably are "misleading propaganda," London authorities declared today.

British press reports hinted at steady Nazi troop movements into Premier Mussolini's domain and at imminent German intervention to rescue Il Duce from the military debacles in Libya and Albania, but informed British circles cautioned against believing such rumors.

Most of these stories, it was reiterated, have originated from Beigrade, where the British say a huge Nazi propaganda bureau is in operation. London spokesmen expressed belief the new German "rumor strategy" have these purposes:

- (1) To disguise Germany's real intentions, which may be to send Nazi troops through Spain for an attack on Gibraltar.
- (2) Aid Mussolini by reports of German intervention in Albania, which would stiffen Italian morale at home.
- (3) Induce Britain to concentrate still greater forces in Libya to the detriment of defense forces in the British Isles, where they may be needed.

(Editor's note: A Vichy dispatch yesterday said it was confirmed there that a "number" of German army divisions are in Italy. Reuters (British) news agency reported from the Italian frontier that between 75,000 and 90,000 German soldiers have arrived in Italy already.)

Finland Mourns Death Of Former President Today

Selected

(International News Service)

HELSINKI, Dec. 20.—All Finland mourned today for the Republic's former president, Kyosti Kallio who died only a few hours after his successor, Risto Rytty, was chosen by the electoral college.

Kallio, worn out by the strain of guiding his nation through the war with Soviet Russia and subsequent reconstruction efforts following Finland's defeat, succumbed to apoplexy.

He died while reviewing a guard of honor with Field Marshal Baron Mannerheim, and Gen. Heinrichs. When stricken, Kallio, 67 years old, was enroute to his country home at Nivala, where he planned to rest.

Kallio had resigned from the presidency several weeks ago because of failing health. Rytty, who was Premier, was chosen acting president and yesterday was elected for a full presidential term.

Britain Reports Terrific Naval Attack On Valona

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

LONDON, Dec. 20.—A terrific naval artillery attack on the Italian-held Albanian port of Valona—executed by British battleships without opposition—was announced by the British admiralty today.

A communique said:

"Battleships of the Mediterranean fleet heavily bombarded Valona on the night of Dec. 18, firing nearly 100 tons of shells without opposition."

(Editor's Note: Valona is one of the two principal Albanian ports still held by the Italians in Albania. The other is Durazzo. In the past weeks British and Greek planes have bombed Valona repeatedly in an effort to make it useless for bringing Italian reinforcements into Albania or serving as a port of embarkation in the event of an Italian evacuation.)

LONDON, Dec. 20.—Great Britain took the offensive against her Axis enemies today with violent attacks by air and sea upon the most vital ports and bases of Italy and Germany.

Encountering no opposition, the British navy steamed into the Adriatic at Italy's "back door" and poured 100 tons of shells into Valona, one of the only two Albanian seaports remaining in Italian hands.

Raids On Germany

At the same time, the Royal Air Force lashed out at the industrial areas which form the backbone of Nazi Germany's war machine, scoring crippling victories at Dusseldorf, Cologne, Duisburg and Essen.

In the latter city are the gigantic Krupp armament works which turn out the major portion of Germany's military weapons.

The attack on Valona, which coincided with another naval assault against Bardia in Italian Libya, was announced in a terse admiralty communique which disclosed that Britain's fleet apparently now is able to operate in the Adriatic as well as the Mediterranean without serious opposition from Italy.

Startling Ruling By Chicago Judge On Racing News

CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—Government attorneys today studied the ruling of Federal Judge William S. Holly that interstate transmission of horse racing news is legal and does not violate the federal lottery law.

The decision apparently was a setback to the government's campaign to suppress handbook gambling on a national scale, but operators of handbooks had a warning from U. S. District Attorney J. Albert Wolf not to rejoice too soon.

Anyone furnishing racing news on the basis of Judge Holly's decision, Wolf said, would do so "at his own peril." Meanwhile, Wolf said, he would study the opinion to determine what further course of action the government might take.

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Two ships a British freighter and another vessel apparently under British control, reported that they were attacked by submarines today in the shipping "graveyard" 300 miles off the Irish coast according to messages picked up by MacKay radio.

The latest vessel to radio distress was a ship identified as the steamer Varangberg. It was believed to be Norwegian now under the control of the British. The Varangberg gave her position as latitude 53.30 north, longitude 19.25 west. She reported that she was attacked at 8:35 a. m.

Earlier the British freighter Carlton radioed that she was attacked twice, at 7:54 a. m. and 7:59 a. m. by a submarine which crossed ahead of her and then opened fire with torpedoes.

Afterward an unidentified vessel signalled distress but when the call from the Varangberg was picked up it was believed that the question of identity was cleared up.

Fourth Day Of Raiding Lull Over Britain

(International News Service)

A single bomber which dropped a cluster of explosives on one London area today represented Germany's only aerial stab at Britain.

For more active were the British R. A. F. and Navy. While the Nazi air "holidays" rounded out its fourth day, the R. A. F. hit at the important German industrial cities of Essen—site of the Krupp arms works, Hunsdorf, Cologne and Duisburg.

Germany's fourth day of aerial inactivity caused a new wave of anxious speculation in London. Fear of an invasion attempt remained paramount, and authoritative military opinion adopted the view that the war will have entered its decisive phase by the end of February.

However, British opinion began to swing to the view that, rather than an invasion attempt, the Germans were more likely to unleash a gigantic aerial offensive against Britain, combined with re-instatement of U-boat raids on British shipping.

Federal Bureau of Investigation agents are searching for an unidentified extortionist, between 20 and 30, who disarmed a G-man and escaped from a carefully laid police trap in a cabbage patch near Santa Rosa.

International News Service learned authoritatively.

The encounter took place late Wednesday night as the result of a rendezvous set in the last of three extortion notes received by the De Tristans.

Pennsylvania Forestry Association Sees Much Benefit In Proposal

TO TAKE MATTER TO STATE LEGISLATURE

By FRANK J. BURKE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 20.—Plans to revive Pennsylvania's "declining" state forests to provide up to $200,000 annual revenue for the commonwealth, eliminate ghost towns and spur home industries were revealed today by the Pennsylvania Forestry Association.

Announcement of years of planning and research by the group were revealed to International News Service with announcement that the association will demand a virtual "showdown on forest neglect" at the forthcoming legislative session.

"We believe forestry can again become big business in Pennsylvania," asserted H. Gleason Mattoon, Philadelphia, executive secretary of the association. "We are laying out bills to be presented at the next legislature and we hope to have a good lobby in Harrisburg."

In demanding immediate remedial measures, Mattoon painted a picture of near-desolation and unemployment in 15 central and north central counties which could prosper under proper state management of valuable but unused forest lands.

"Most important step in rejuvenating forestry," he said, "is institution of a selective cutting program by the department of forests and waters. This project would weed out good timber for sale to private industry, leaving room for new trees to grow with proper light and water."

"The state could sell ten to 20 million board feet of timber annually without depleting these forests," Mattoon asserted. "It could be sold on a competitive basis to wood products manufacturers with an estimated profit up to $200,000, which would more than make up administrative costs and help the surrounding towns back on their feet."

Other speakers at the dinner were: Fred L. Rantz, president of The News, who introduced and responded; Louis B. Round, vice president and general manager of the Pennsylvania Power Company, congratulated the truckmen upon the strides they have made in building good will on the highways.

State Senator J. K. McQuiddy, and Assemblymen Presley N. Jones and George T. Weingartner were introduced and each spoke briefly. Representing the Inter-State Commerce Commission, E. P. Schwab and Thomas Stevens spoke upon safety and Howard C. Weaver spoke for the Pennsylvania Public Utility commission. The evening's program was in charge of Paul W. Keeley, president of the Lawrence County chapter of the PMTA. Bart Richards acted as toastmaster.

Interspersing the addresses was a vaudeville act by Audrey Dee as mistress of ceremonies. Following the speaking the Bloise brothers, members of the association presented several acts. Pep singing during the dinner was directed by Al Bauman and the truckers sang with a will.

Before and after the dinner the men were interested in the display of affiliated lines in the dining room. At the conclusion of the dinner the meeting broke up into a number of small groups with some of the speakers holding informal forums upon truck problems.

Over 250 attended the dinner.

tional convention in Los Angeles in the fall. Pennsylvania took half the prizes for safety and for the second year took the American Truck Association safety award.

Touching upon the size of the trucking industry and its meaning to the nation Mr. Gogolin said, "In 1904 there were 410 trucks in the United States. Today there are four and a half million, of which 85 per cent are owned and operated by private business, the balance being for hire. The for hire trucks are hauling 7.7 per cent of the city to city freight carried in the country. In taxes we mean something to the government. In one year the industry pays into the governmental treasury, $350,000,000. In Pennsylvania alone our tax bill amounts to $27,000,000. In 1941 the state expects to spend $29,000,000 of its own money and ten more millions federal money building highways. Our tax bill will nearly pay the state's entire share of the bill."

Asks Fair Play

Mr. Gogolin mentioned some arguments between various forms of freight transportation in the past. "That sort of thing is not necessary," said he, "today the truck is basic in every form of freight transportation, whether it is rail, air or water. Somewhere between origin and destination a truck enters into the movement."

Several local men spoke briefly. Fred L. Rantz, president of The News, was introduced and responded. Louis B. Round, vice president and general manager of the Pennsylvania Power Company, congratulated the truckmen upon the strides they have made in building good will on the highways.

at Bardia. Some sources put the figures at 20,000—Others at considerably more than 30,000. Best estimates were that the bulk of two Italian divisions including some "do or die" blackshirt units, were caught in the trap.

With the mechanized British legions relentlessly hammering at the Bardia seaport and forcing their way through its network of defenses, the Italians were completely encircled, with their backs to the sea, where British vessels blasted them with shellfire.

Put Up Resistance

Despite their seemingly desperate plight, the Italians put up a desperate resistance at Bardia.

They used cunningly constructed tank traps and gun emplacements, "booby traps" and land mines in an effort to halt or at least hurt the British military machine that closed relentlessly around them.

"These strategies, however, were having little effect upon the British advance according to a Cairo military spokesman, who remarked:

"The Italians are in a tight corner. Our operations are proceeding to our utmost satisfaction."

It was expected in British circles that the fall of Bardia will soon be announced and that the Italians who already have escaped and survived will make their next stand in the Tobruk area. Thousands of Fascists, however, are said to have withdrawn still further west toward Derna.

success. The enemy was dislodged from his positions at bayonet point, despite strong resistance, leaving more than 600 prisoners in our hands, as well as many automatic and other arms.

"Enemy aircraft attacked hospital buildings despite visible red cross markings on them. Our aircraft successfully bombed military objectives."

(According to reports from Budapest Italian planes bombed Klisura after Italian troops fled from the city.)

Evacuated Second Time

Athens military sources claimed that the Italians, who recaptured Port Palermo after abandoning it once, had been forced to evacuate it for a second time. These units are now racing northward up the coast toward Chimara, these sources said.

On the far northern sector beyond captured Pogrades, where snow and ice hampered operations, the Greeks scored a new and highly important advance.

Reports to Athens said the Italian losses in this region were extremely heavy and that the streets of captured Albanian villages were "filled with Fascist corpses."

In this northern region one Greek reconnaissance patrol of but 15 men captured an Italian officer and more than 150 Italian soldiers, it was reported.

Defense Collapsing

Italian loss of Klisura and failure to stem the Greek drive on Tepeleni were regarded as indicating a rapid disintegration of Italian defenses from the Adriatic to the central Albanian front.

The next halting point for the fleeing Italians, it was claimed, was Valona, one of the two remaining Albanian seaports of importance still held by the Fascists.

On the coast other Italian units were reported in full flight towards Chimara after abandoning new defense positions, while the Greek warriors kept up their steady pursuit.

The Greek commander in chief, Gen. Papagos, issued an order of the day to his troops, stating:

"Blows dealt by the Greek army have placed the enemy in a perilous position. Part of his forces are almost dispersed and demoralized. The Italians are giving way. They are giving way before the Greek forces in Albania, before the British in Africa, and they also are giving way on the home front."

"Victory will be ours, the enemy will be thrown into the sea and it will be the most glorious victory in our history. Forward Greek troops. Victory will be your due."

far reported were some telegraph poles knocked down in the vicinity of Concord, N. H.

Deluged With Calls

Everywhere, through the earthquake region, fire and police stations and newspapers and radio stations were deluged by telephone calls from frightened residents.

Among the larger cities where the tremors were felt were Montreal, Boston, New Haven, Philadelphia, Camden, N. J., and the Staten Island and Long Island sections of New York City.

It was believed the "quake resulted from a subsidence of the earth's crust along the New England coast possibly along a fault under the Connecticut river valley.

BRITAIN TO GET TWICE AS MANY PLANES IN U. S.

House ordered further speed in delivery of merchant ships to England. It was reliably reported that 50 ships, including some 30 Danish vessels which took shelter in U. S. ports at outbreak of the war, will be sold to Britain this week-end. If sale of the Danish boats is made, then the U. S. might seize 106 German and Italian ships for sale to the British.

Negotiate for Materials

This does not include ships to be sent to Britain under President Roosevelt's long-range lend-or-lease program. Under these plans, Secretary of Treasury Morgenthau, at instructions from the president, told Britain to start negotiations for $3,000,000,000 worth of war materials in this country.

Morgenthau said that the final contracts will not be signed, however, until the proposal is presented to congress. It was reported that President Roosevelt will ask the new congress for a vote of confidence in his plan when it convenes in January.

The proposal is distinct from British orders already placed and paid for. It contemplates building of 12,000 war planes, mostly bombers, 2,000 tanks and large quantities of guns and shells. A master list of the British needs has been presented to national defense and military and naval chiefs, and they have approved it.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

DON'T ADD TO BURDEN OF WILLING YOUTH

Some months ago an article of mine appeared in a popular magazine. In this article I pointed out that many of our choicest and most promising youths were being stimulated by the school and home to wear themselves out "doing good," being engaged in an inordinate number of school and community activities. I warned that some of these precious youths are breaking under the strain.

Examine your own high school and your own child. Observe the boys and girls there who are participating in ever so many out-of-class activities, and still trying to excel, perhaps, in their studies. These same youths also may be engaged in various activities of the community. They may be taking extra courses in art, music, dancing. Now and then we will find one of these overwhelmed youths taking an extra school subject.

Children Need Relaxation

Now all these activities have rich values, especially those of the community. But there is a limit to the child's physical and nervous energy. He needs time to loll and relax but may have none at all. "My child has no time he can call his own," one often hears from parents who say it pathetically, with pride. They should be ashamed of themselves for egging their child on to catastrophe.

Participation in many out-of-class activities has become so much of a fad that many employers give first place to the youth who has engaged in the greatest number of them. They may be wise in their choice; yet at the present rate, a large number of the choicest youths are headed for the human scrapheap.

Adults Must Protect Children

Who will protect these innocent, eager, promising boys and girls? Not many parents will. Most of them are so blinded with their pride that they encourage their over-stimulated sons and daughters to take on more rather than fewer activities. Surely such "pride cometh before a fall." Leaders of the several school and community activities won't. Like hungry vultures they will hang around to seize the best, each leader thinking of his own fame and program rather than of the child.

The school principal is partially responsible, too. Let him see that definite and reasonable limits are set and that no student is engaged in an inordinate number of activities. Some principals already are tackling this problem courageously.

If the principal thinks broadly in terms of education and mental health, he will encourage participation in community activities in preference to school activities, since the former are the more permanent.

You and I are enthusiastic over extra-curricular activities. But while we should encourage more youths to enter them, we also need to see that no student participates in too many of them at any time.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

WHY IS IT?

It is difficult to understand why the German submarine should get so many English merchant ships in a bunch, as the Press reported recently had been accomplished.

It will be remembered that during the last war, the United States successfully conveyed all of the American troops sent overseas without the loss of a single boat—not a single transport was torpedoed while under the convoy of the United States Navy. On many occasions, our Navy destroyers used their so-called "ash cans" successfully against submarines. Only once have I known of any English Naval vessel using these depth charges successfully, and that was in the Mediterranean when an Italian submarine was destroyed.

It will also be remembered that during the last war, our American transport was torpedoed by a German submarine in the waters north of Scotland while under the convoy of the English Navy.

Are the English too obstinate to use the American "ash can"? Have the Germans improved the construction of their submarines to such an extent that the German submarines are impervious to depth charges; that their hulls are so strong now that a depth charge will not wreck the submarine?

I get no satisfactory answer to this question from any of the Navy men with whom I have talked. They simply do not understand it. It seems curious that a fleet of eight or more British freighters should be proceeding across the Atlantic, laden with very necessary war materials for Great Britain, without being accompanied by Destroyers. This nation handed Britain fifty good Destroyers and I don't know how many more. It does seem as though they could protect their merchant ships better than appearances show.

Hints On Etiquette

The ushers at a church wedding should be dressed as much alike as possible.

WANTS AN ALIBI

A man in an office by himself, always puts a dictation sign on his letters, indicating that he has a secretary.

"Why do you do that and you don't have a typist?" he was asked by a friend.

"Well," he explained, "it's like this: I'm a bit shaky about my spelling."

After new roads are built the people who build roads in the first place find out the mistakes they made.

Time, we hear, gallops on with the speed of fast airplanes, or even faster. And now we understand that progress will bring us a rent-a-shirt.

HINTS AND DINTS

Sun sets tonight 4:35. Sun rises tomorrow 7:21.

There are 70 doctors in New Castle. How many of them do you know by name and where they are located.

And by the way that road improvement between New Wilmington and Sharon is some fine piece of work.

Live your life so at this Christmas time so if you are not here next Christmas you will be missed. By a few people at least.

There is only one thing that will keep people from worrying and that is having nothing to worry about.

SANTA CLAUS
Old Santa must be very old. I knew him years ago. He walks and talks as spry today as he did years ago.

He's just as fat and jolly, too. As when I knew him first. 'Twould not be him, if he were slim; I hope he does not burst.

I'd hate to be as fat as he. But if 'twould keep me young, I'd just delight on Christmas night To fill each stocking hung.

And to the hero of each child. 'Til time should be no more; I'd dress in red from toe to head. Reversed from every shore.

No person likes to be called a skunk, especially if he has had any personal experience with one.

We have yet to hear anybody say anything unpleasant about Santa Claus.

A husband gave his wife the ha-ha when he asked him for a little cash for Christmas spending, after he had caught her up in this way. He asked her which she's rather have—"an old five-spot, or a new one." Naturally she did not like to carry around grimy money. He promptly handed her a crisp new $1 bill.

And there are birds who will see several Santa Clauses on Christmas and perhaps for several days afterwards. You Sabe?

There are people who get along very well by fooling a part of the people part of the time.

No one is really desolate so long as they can have someone they can trust and love. Not even at Christmas time.

Nobody can say that Christmas has not been well advertised.

Probably every man was surprised the first time he heard that he had been born free and equal.

Answer: One letter, sent by your wife, will be sufficient for both of you. She must, of course, incorporate in her letter your thanks, along with her own, in this way: "Phil and I have never spent a more delightful week-end..." This letter should be addressed to the hostess; but should include several references to the host's kindness and hospitality.

Question: How long should I remain at my wedding reception? Should I remove my veil when I arrive?—Helen.

Answer: Remain in your wedding attire until it is time for you to change to your traveling clothes just prior to leaving for your honeymoon. You may stay at the reception until it is time for you to leave for your journey.

Want More Tangibles From England
Destroyer Deal Was Not Too Good
World War Loans Are Also Recalled

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Sentiment in congress tends pretty strongly to the view that Britain ought outright to cede some islands to the United States in return for whatever loans we make to John Bull to help him out in his pending war with the Axis nations.

To be sure, we got several bases off the Canadian coast and in the Caribbean for the 50 destroyers we handed over to the London admiralty. However, we got them only on a 99-year leasehold basis. We got no whole islands, either—only a small jumping-off place on each of those included in the transaction. Furthermore, it isn't at all clear that even our leaseholds aren't subject to dictation by the local governments of the islands referred to. And what about rental payments? If they're tolerably stiff, can we say that we really are getting anything whatever for our destroyers? Shant we be footing a bill for our bases up to all they're worth and throwing in the destroyers gratis?

A good many of our lawmakers complain that Washington's executive administration hasn't answered any of these questions. It put through the destroyer-insular base deal without consulting the legislators, and still isn't answering their numerous queries concerning its details.

Something Tangible

A sizable contingent of them represented the secretive fashion in which the destroyer was pulled off. There's no talk of going back on that particular trade now. But the discontented element distinctly is in favor of getting back something tangible in exchange for such further investment as we may make in behalf of the British. There's a legislative bunch which wants a good handful of islands bodily—not mere bases on the edge of 'em. And it wants those islands in perpetuity for Uncle Samuel—not just leaseholds. It wants 'em on the same basis as the Louisiana purchase, which the destroyer bargain has been compared with.

I'm by no means sure that this legislative crowd is in a congressional majority, but there's enough of it to put up quite a formidable fight over the issue.

There isn't as much apparent congressional opposition to GIVING cash and supplies to the British as there is to making fresh loans to them. There are anti-loan spokesmen on Capitol Hill who concede, "We don't want to see John Bull licked—dash-ding his defaulting heart at the same time! So, to save him from being squashed by Herr Hitler, let's GIVE him what he's gotta have to prevent it."

But they don't propose to let him think they consider him an honest debtor.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1940 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Things may get considerably scrambled in England before this winter is over. There is reported a serious shortage of silk and rayon to make the old school ties that are being particularly trying in the holiday season, when the ties are in great demand for gifts. They are beginning to ration them. It may be serious. A neck with an old school tie around it isn't stuck out so readily as one lacking such drapery, but a night in a bomb shelter, without a blanket or an old school tie, is a great leveler.

The substance as well as the symbol of British education, politics and academic, is at stake. Under the stress of Britain's terrific ordeal, slum boys are being herded into the private schools—public schools, as they call them there. Even Eton and Harrow are being invaded.

The newspapers and the air are loaded with discussions and debates about a "new England" emerging from this war. Too many onlookers, in my opinion, conclude that this is really "Good-bye Mr. Chips." They think the Tories will all be thrown out of the cabinet, that the school which aren't blown up will be rebuilt, with model housing and the English will find their old form of socialization of industry, within a framework of essentially democratic processes.

I shouldn't like to stake any sizeable bet on that. The love of the Britisher for his king and queen is as deep and genuine as his love for "his accepted ways of life and his patient acquiescence in what is done or not done."

Just suppose that this war should end, say within two years, in a victory for England. The first order of business would be a toast to their majesties, in the Lime House pews, Buckingham Palace and all between. There would be a rallying of patriotism and a wave of song and rejoicing all over the land. I am strongly inclined to believe that after a deep-dish pork pie and a pint of ale all around, random citizens would snap into their wonted routine and it would be "business as usual" in England. Staying put is one of the best things the British do. It helps to account for the way they are sticking through all this dreadful blasting, with morale which has abounded the world.

Former Ambassador Joseph Kennedy, in that famous foot-fault interview of his, said democracy was through in England, and the implication was that it would move along into the Nazi-Fascist pattern of authoritarian government. We wouldn't want to put a bet on that either British democracy—and there is such in spite of the rigid class distinctions—has been devised through centuries of compromising, of adjustment and adaptations, give and take, and above all, with practical expediency.

The British never went in for the grand flourish of the French encyclopedists. They have an instinctive, and long-conditioned aversion to noble generalizations about the rights of man and the sovereignty of the people. Their democracy is a thing of shreds and patches, but all their own, and somehow stubborn and durable. It is a derivative of hard-headed British mercantilism, dating back to Elizabethan days. The strata of caste are as firm and as sharply marked as ancient geological formations, but institutional cultural democracy just the same, is there.

If we were making book on the next few years, we would lay six to five against England making much of a shift either right or left. There is much talk about the new labor ascendancy in the government. But England's labor leaders, Ernest Bevin and Herbert Morrison, never were leftists. And the old school tie still predominates in the thirty-three offices of England's high governmental command.

The man who will bring them through, in the considered opinion of very competent observers, is Winston Churchill, to whom they have surely laid a temporary dictatorship. He will surely dominate reconstruction when victory comes, and Mr. Churchill is not one to fool around with strange economic gods. We are clicking old England as a good mudder, always worth a bet on the records of past performance.

SEEK TO REDUCE TOLL OF TRAFFIC

State Department Of Revenue Urges Battle Against Traffic Fatalities

By JOHN PAGET
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, Dec. 20—The Department of Revenue today was planning a long-range educational and safety program for schools and municipal organizations aimed at halting Pennsylvania's rising highway death rate.

Unofficial figures predict the state's 1940 highway death toll will reach 2000.

Preliminary plans call for the establishment of traffic safety schools at Harrisburg, Philadelphia and Scranton in addition to the one already in operation at Pittsburgh — built at a cost of approximately $200,000.

These schools will offer free courses in highway courtesy and driving, including safety lectures by department employees bolstered with the latest traffic statistics.

Officials also were planning a traffic and pedestrian education course in the commonwealth's schools to instruct young people in proper traffic conduct.

Openly alarmed at the continued rise in pedestrian accidents, officials hoped to impress young potential motorists with the need for extreme caution.

A department spokesman indicated that revenue officials are planning to ask the general assembly "for everything it can get" in the line of an appropriation to expand the department's limited facilities for educating the motoring public.

Isolated and independent safety campaigns for specified periods do not have a telling effect on traffic fatality reduction, it was stated.

Build Airport For National Guard Unit

Construction Underway For Hangars And Barracks For Observation Squadron

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Dec. 20—An $228,000 airport project involving the construction of quarters for men and equipment of the 103rd Observation Squadron, Pennsylvania National Guard, has been launched at the Harrisburg airport, near New Cumberland.

The project, part of the federal expansion program underway at Indiantown Gap, includes construction of a steel hangar, 160 by 200 feet, costing $144,000. In addition, three barracks, a mess hall, recreation quarters, storeroom and an officers' barracks are under construction. All buildings will be built of wood and of the same design as buildings now underway at Indiantown Gap.

Engineers estimate the project will be completed by January 1, with the exception of the steel hangar which will be finished at a later date.

Shenango Pottery Given Navy Order

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20—The navy today had awarded a $100,000 contract to the Shenango Pottery Co. of New Castle, Pa., for china ware.

ACCIDENT VICTIMS LEAVE HOSPITAL

Miss Marian Wolford of East North street, Mrs. Emma Snyder of Norwood avenue and William Scott of Youngstown, O., all of whom were injured in an accident at the Grant street bridge over the Shenango, when an automobile in which they were passengers crashed into the back end of a truck early Monday morning, have recovered sufficiently to leave the Jameson Memorial hospital, where they have been undergoing treatment.

BOILS

When I was a youngster I used to think that boils were more or less a mark of holiness. I guess I got the idea from the Biblical story of Job. But since I've grown up and become a practitioner of medicine I've found that a person doesn't have to be as holy as Job to suffer from a dandy crop of boils.

Boils are an infection of the skin, or of the tissue underlying the skin, and they are caused by pus organisms that are nearly always of the staphylococcal group. They have many causes such as uncleanliness, excess sweating, friction, dampness. Anemia will sometimes cause them, so will chronic alcoholism, diabetes or dyspepsia. Often the nature of a person's work tends to induce boils in some individuals. I know this is true of people who work in tar and oil factories.

Boils are usually much more painful than they are serious. Still a man can get into pretty bad shape if he has a couple of clusters of boils, particularly if they happen to be situated in such a place that he can't sit down, or move about without hurting them. They are serious only when a person attempts to doctor a boil, squeezes it out under unsterile circumstances, and causes infection to set in, or where a crop of boils indicates a basic disorder such as diabetes.

Of course, the last thing you should do is attempt to squeeze out a boil yourself. Even worse is to attempt to lance it or let out the pus with a pin or a needle. That is just asking for trouble in the form of infection. In fact, scientists believe today that when boils or pimples about the nose or upper lip become infected, they often lead to meningitis or brain abscess.

About the best home relief I know for boils is hot wet compresses of boric acid, or epsom salts. The heat relieves the pain, and the moisture with the heat softens the point of the boil so it can break and drain itself out.

I know there are many home remedies for boils such as soap and sugar poultices. I remember one man who had a spectacular way of draining a boil. He would fill a bottle with steam, driving out most of the air, doctor. He will advise you on what treatment to give it, and when it has come to a head, he will make an incision and remove the diseased and dead tissue. If you are bothered by a series of boils, then the doctor will inquire into the cause. He may change your mode of living so as to remove the cause of the boils. He certainly will advocate adequate rest, exercise, frequent bathing, fresh air, a regular routine of eating and sleeping, perhaps a tonic. Often the use of vaccines is effective in combating a plague of boils.

WARM BLANKETS

The warmth of a blanket depends on three things—fiber, nap and weave. A warm blanket is thick and firm enough to keep cold drafts from penetrating, and fluffy enough to keep the body's heat from escaping too rapidly.

The pressure of the air on our bodies is about 15 tons; yet we are unconscious of the weight because the gases and fluids inside our bodies press outward with exactly the same force.

CONGRESS MAY GET DISPUTE ON SEWING PROJECT

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Dec. 20—The dispute between Gov. Arthur H. James and State W.P.A. Administrator Philip Mathews over the threatened dismissal of 12,000 women employed on W.P.A. sewing projects today appeared headed for the halls of congress.

Both sides appeared deadlocked after the W.P.A. in Washington rejected a plea from the governor that Mathews be overridden and forced to continue the projects after January 27, when the women face dismissal. Mathews contends, however, that he would be violating the law if he permitted the 250 sewing projects to continue on the present basis.

After an exchange of letters and public statements during the past week the controversy appeared to have reached the following state: Mathews reiterated he must have an appropriation from the state of $10 a month per woman if the sewing projects are not to close down, while the governor insisted the $2.50 which the state has paid during the past two years was sufficient.

Meanwhile, in Washington, Democratic house whip Patrick J. Boland, of Scranton, said he would take the matter up in congress, adding that the governor's position was a "calamity."

"There is only one thing for me to do as a representative from Pennsylvania, and that is to acquaint the committees of congress with this situation," he said. It was expected that Boland would take the matter up with the Woodrum committee, which is concerned with W.P.A. appropriations.

Yuletide Party For Croton Boys' Town Is Arranged

Santa Claus will pay a special visit to Croton's Boys' Town, Saturday evening, December 21, when a lot of pre-Christmas cheer will be spread among the members of this organization by the kindly saint in the persons of officials of the Johnson Bronze Company. They will dispense food, fruit, Christmas candy, and other refreshments at the organization's club room, 1332 Croton avenue.

Oscar E. "Bud" Russler, chairman of the Johnson Bronze Company's executive committee, and his capable aides, Harry Davies and Lou Klinker, state that arrangements for the event are complete.

Sub-Stations Are Kept Busy

Post Office sub-stations Number 1, on East Long avenue, and Number 2, at the New Castle Dry Goods Store, are helping to bear the brunt of the Christmas rush, both stations having a steady stream of customers. At Station 2, it was necessary to move the quarters from the east end to the west end of the mezzanine floor where more room was secured for mail handling. Superintendent of Mails, David B. Thomas, states that mail trucks continue to ply back and forth between the main office and the stations throughout the day, to prevent congestion, this goes on until nine in the evening.

REPORTS ATTACK

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Dec. 20—The British freighter Carlton, a 5,162-ton vessel, reported early today she was torpedoed by a submarine about 300 miles west of Ireland, according to a message intercepted by Mackay radio.

The Carlton reported she was attacked twice, at 7:54 a. m. and 7:59 a. m. by a submarine which crossed ahead of her and then opened fire with torpedoes.

The Carlton gave its position as 55.16 north latitude and 18.49 west longitude.

After the message reporting the attack, nothing further was heard from the Carlton, an ominous sign that she probably went under.

Uptrend In Real Estate Is On Way

Much Of "Distress" Property Which Has Been Overhanging Market Is Sold

CONDITIONS ARE NOW IMPROVING

Real estate sales and building operations in New Castle during the past year both show an increase over the preceding year. Brokers say that much of the "distress" property which has been overhanging the market has been sold, with a consequent stiffening of prices, and proving a better outlook for the ensuing year.

This "distress" property was a natural consequence of the depression. In the prosperous years previous to 1929, this city, in common with others throughout the country, enjoyed an unusual building boom. Many persons, believing that they were in a "New Era" plunged into debt, expecting the good times to last.

But the crash came, and as the subsequent depression deepened, many property owners found themselves unable to meet their obligations. The consequence was foreclosure, resulting in mortgage holders becoming the unwilling holders of real estate which later came to be known as "distress" property. This was not a condition peculiar to New Castle. It was general. No city escaped it, but conditions here were accentuated by our industrial situation.

Affected Market
When "distress" property was offered for sale, at bargain prices, it very naturally affected the market for other property. This has worked to the advantage of prospective home owners, and to the disadvantage of those who held property acquired during the inflation period. It has been a "buyers" market, and has enabled scores of persons to secure homes at far below their real values. One has but to secure present replacement prices on houses to realize what a difference there is between houses already built and new construction.

Every "distress" property which has been sold below real value has had the effect of helping to remove the cause of depressed prices, and as this type of property is consequently being taken off the market, it can be safely assumed that the low point in New Castle real estate has now been passed. From now on a gradual uptrend may be expected. Prices will probably not reach the peak as we have known it, but will likely go far higher than at present.

As the situation stands today, there are very few vacant houses in the city. One reason is that building has lagged for the past ten years. While some families have moved away others have come in, and many new homes have been established through the old time custom of courtship and marriage.

Shortage Of Small Houses
There is an actual shortage of houses in the four and five room class. Unoccupied six room houses are scarce. Many of the larger houses have been duplexed, and are generally occupied as soon as completed. New construction during the past year has been greater than for several years past, and as these new houses are all occupied, it indicates a healthy trend. Architecture of the new homes is generally of the bungalow or semi-bungalow type. There seems to be a pretty well developed idea that the smaller the house the lower the taxes.

In connection with real estate value, it may be pertinent to remark that the trying times through which we have passed, have not been altogether responsible for a slump in prices. With the downward trend many people have neglected to keep their properties up. With some it has no doubt been impossible, but the majority might have done better.

Every citizen knows of streets in this town that were once considered the best residence sections. Many of the properties have been allowed to deteriorate to such an extent that their salability has been affected and buyers pass them by. There is nothing that helps sell a house more than paint and a general tidy appearance. Real estate values in New Castle could be greatly helped if every property owner would resolve to put his house in order. This is the time of year when planning should be done. Start in next spring and make it a "city beautiful." The increased value will pay you many times.

HAS HAND INJURED IN CLOTHES WRINGER

Chest Strives For Just Distribution Of Holiday Baskets

New Castle civic and fraternal organizations which will distribute baskets to needy families at Christmas are registering their intentions with the Community Chest, in accordance with a recent request of the Chest to let it establish a "clearing house" for all gift distribution.

The object of the registration is to avoid a situation where some families get several baskets while others as equally deserving get nothing.

48 FEET ROUND

The Fairlop oak in Essex, England, which was blown down in 1820, measured 48 feet in circumference. An annual fair was held under its branches.

There is no foundation to the old belief that an ostrich buries its head in the sand for the purpose of protection. Its real purpose in doing this is to obtain water which, in places, is near the surface.

Babson Discusses America's Standards Of Living At Present

By ROGER W. BABSON
Copyright—1940—Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 20.—Our people demand more than those of any other nation on earth. Our standards of living are the highest in the world. Few of our people will go hungry over the holiday season. Wages and pay rolls are up, unemployment is decreasing. Our dollar has been devaluated, but it still buys more necessities and luxuries of life than any other currency.

A Worker's Paradise

The average American factory worker on his wage per hour can purchase approximately 7.5 pounds of bread, 16 pounds of butter, 21 pounds of beef, 35.1 pounds of potatoes, 2.6 pounds of coffee. In Germany, an average worker's hourly wage buys only 2.5 pounds of bread, 0.5 of a pound of butter, 0.9 of a pound of beef, 20.5 pounds of potatoes, 0.3 of a pound of coffee.

The American worker's wage buys 9.78 pounds of these five essential foodstuffs. The German worker can buy only 4.94 pounds. The bread, butter, beef and coffee, which is used in Germany, we would not recognize. Potatoes are potatoes the world over; but in Germany sawdust is being mixed with flour, oleomargarine is a substitute for butter; horses, dogs, cats and foxes are legalized substitutes for beef, and chicory is the name for coffee.

Food Abundant Here
Coffee is a drug on the U. S. market. Sugar, flour, rice and vegetables are extremely cheap. There has been a rise in the cost of meat and some canned goods. But, the average price of foodstuffs is today below the 1935-39 average and way below 1929. Rents, clothing, furniture and fuel are slightly higher than the 1935-39 average; but only moderately so. The retail price of gasoline, on the other hand, is at its lowest in years. We here in America, with only 6 per cent of the world's population, own 72 per cent of the world's automobiles, 49 per cent of its telephones and 47 per cent of its radios. In the ownership of furniture, jewels, rugs and homes, we also outstrip all other nations.

In any recent month, food prices may show a moderate rise of, say, 1 per cent or less. When compared with the corresponding month of 1939, there is either no change or prices are lower. Food costs remain slightly under the 1939-40 peak reached during June and July. This is because the surpluses of wheat, corn, pork, lard and other commodities are still extremely large. With our export trade declining, there is still chance of reducing these stocks. For a long time to come, unless the war ends abruptly, we will have these foodstuffs to consume or to give away.

Rise Away Markets Out of Style
Inevitably rising living costs accompany an increase in industrial production. The old law of supply and demand is still working. As the demand for housing facilities increases, so rents rise. With higher wages, people spend more for luxury goods. Even when raw materials for luxury goods are curtailed, luxury demand increases and prices of such goods necessarily rise. Facilities exist to curb rising prices except in instances where they are orderly. This is important from the administration's point of view in connection with the defense program. There must be no run-away markets in either raw materials or foodstuffs.

Actual government ownership of certain commodities, as in the present case of cotton and wheat, can be used to steady prices. Large stocks of these and other commodities will be thrown upon the market at the first signs of dangerous inflation. Thus, attempts to raise prices can be counteracted. In the raw materials picture, much can likewise be done. In World War I the War Industries Board successfully kept down the price of copper. This was accomplished through conferences with a group of large producers. In our present situation, if producers attempted to raise prices much over present figures, the copper tariff could also be taken off.

Remember that government bonds have, to date, been purchased largely by banks and insurance companies. A drive could be put on to force individuals to buy these securities. This would put money into the federal till and keep it out of the grocery, department stores and jewelry shops. Thus, an abnormal demand for necessities and luxury goods would dry up and prices would not run away.

Five Days To Christmas
You will not hear from me again until the Friday after Christmas. Hence, I cannot close this week's column without wishing my readers and the publishers of this paper a very Merry Christmas. This is really no time for weighty discussions. Rather, it is a time for shopping and a tiny to get the household ready for Christmas Day. It will, I hope, be a happy Christmas for wage workers and employers, for parents and children. Surely, here in America, we have much for which to be thankful. I do not have to mention what Christmas Day may bring to the people of many other lands. It is fitting that, in the

Teacher-Wives Cost Pittsburgh $200,000 Per Year

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 20.—Pittsburgh taxpayers are paying a matrimonial bill of $200,000 a year.

This amount of money School Superintendent Ben G. Graham says he could save if he didn't have to keep married women teachers on the payroll.

If he could fire them and hire teachers at the beginner salary scale, it would mean a saving of about one thousand dollars per person, he said today.

Before the present Tenure law was passed, the board of public education enforced a policy of asking women teachers to turn in their resignations when they married. Tenure stopped the practice. Today there are more than 200 married women teachers who are adding to the family budget with salaries that keep getting larger due to increments.

Navy Announces Large Awards

Contracts Let To Provide For Equipping New Fighting Ships

SEEK TO MEET TOOL HANDICAPS

By GRIFFITH BANCROFT, Jr.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—In a large scale move to eliminate long range bottle neck in equipping and outfitting of fighting ships, the Navy announced award of $53,519,897 in contracts to expand plant facilities of seven ordnance factories.

The money will be used to step up production of guns and other equipment for warships.

As in the case of most other defense production, the most serious stumbling block in producing this equipment is the lack of technical machine tools. The contracts let therefore, are for new buildings, machine tools, and other essentials necessary to increase production.

Large Contracts
The largest contract—$45,000,000—went to Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp., to increase facilities at its plant at South Charleston, W. Va. Other contracts were:

Northern Pump Co., Minneapolis, $5,473,297; Goss Printing Press Co., Chicago, $854,600; Bausch and Lomb Optical Co., Rochester, N. Y., $512,000; Westinghouse Electric Mfg. Co., Jersey City, $295,000; Babcock and Wilcox Co., Alliance, O., $250,000; and Crucible Steel Co., Harrison, N. J., $125,000.

These, together with almost $30,000,000 worth of similar orders placed in the last two days, are designed to insure supplies of this vitally needed equipment and to expedite the long, painstaking work of making final installations aboard newly built hulls.

The Navy has a total of 370 ships of various types under construction. As these vessels roll of the ways, however, they are only vast, useless hulls. Machinery, radio equipment, guns and innumerable other installations must be fitted.

Need Equipment
This work, in the case of larger ships, usually requires a year or more. Foreseeing a long-range bottle-neck in the shortage of this equipment, the Navy's present program contemplates having plants pouring out the material as the vessels themselves are completed. Most of the material is designed for destroyers, the backbone of both British and American sea power. Of the 691 ships which the Navy has either afloat or on order, 365—considerably more than half—are destroyers.

In the last two days the Navy has awarded contracts for plant expansion in the aircraft, radio and shipbuilding industry totaling $29,295,007. Almost all of this is designed to speed production of equipment material for vessels now under construction.

An even greater expansion along this line has been necessitated, not only by demands for greater speed but by the fact that the Navy recently ordered an additional 40 destroyers—all of which must be outfitted before they can be placed in service.

The "poor man's law office," established several years ago at Duke University, North Carolina, has handled over 2,500 legal matters for impecunious clients.

Local British War Relief Unit One Of Most Active

Knitting Group To Hear Reports Next Week On Recent Dinner And Bazaar

Lawrence county unit, which was organized in June of this year, is one of the most active in the British War Relief society, just one year old, and has given considerable money and supplies to the parent organization for the relief of the homeland.

At first the need was great for knitted garments and surgical dressings, but there is a greater need now for mobile kitchen units, and the local branch is endeavoring to raise enough money to equip a mobile unit to be shipped overseas.

Much of the success achieved by the unit here is due to the efforts of Henry Jones of Waldo street, chairman of the ways and means committee. A report on the recent bazaar and dinner will be given to members of the knitting group at their meeting in the Congregational church Friday evening, December 27.

The surgical dressing group, because of the Christmas holiday, will not convene until Wednesday evening, January 8, in the Y. W. C. A., when start will be made on children's garments. Because of the rigid demands of the parent society, these garments cannot be taken into the homes, but must be made in the group center.

Volunteer workers are welcome to any of the meetings of the Lawrence county unit. Anyone wishing to make contributions is asked to send them to Mrs. D. W. Thomas, 328 East Long avenue, or Mrs. Jane Lewis, Wildwood avenue.

Eric Laurell Given Mines' Supervision

Senior High Graduate Runs Gigantic Illinois Pits For United

A former New Castle young man, Eric E. Laurell, is the new "big boss" of two of the nation's largest open coal mines.

Laurell, who graduated from New Castle high in 1920, yesterday became general superintendent of the huge Cuba and Buckheart mines of the United Electric Coal Co. which has offices in Chicago. Vice President W. M. Moser made the appointment. The pits are in Fulton county, Illinois.

Four of the world's largest shovels operate at the mines Laurell will supervise. Friends recalled that Laurell returned from a long and varied mining service in South America three years ago. He joined United at that time.

He will address the American Mining Congress in Cincinnati early in 1941.

Laurell's brothers are Lauri and Paul, tellers at First National Bank of Lawrence county. His father is John E. Laurell of 616 Forest street.

New Castle Prepares For Visit Of Santa

The "Wonderland Land" for little folks, and a bright spot in local stores, are the many toylands, thronged by youngsters and their parents, making special trips to see what little Johnny and Mary impart to that jolly, smiling old fellow with rosy cheeks beaming through his long white whiskers, known to kiddies as Santa Claus!

The tune of the old fashioned music box, the squeak of Mickey Mouse, miniature "Donald Duck" musical shows, the nodding of mechanical tiny town folks, and stuffed animals, all with an expression of "I want to be found under your Christmas tree" are in their places on the shelves of toyland, and have proven attractions for thousands of young ones. That electric train will be for Sonny but Dad will enjoy it too!

Jammed elevators with mothers trekking to toylands with their children are still a daily occurrence, though the time is getting short. Yes, old Santa Claus rubs his eyes wearily, while patiently waiting to get his fleet footed reindeer lined up to scamper over the house tops on Christmas Eve, accompanied by his little helpers, to leave presents for "Brother," "Sister," "Father" and "Mother."

PEACE ON EARTH GOOD WILL TO MEN should be sung in the hearts of all living in AMERICA this Yuletide season. It should be indeed a most joyous one, for which all should bow and give thanks in not having to contend with backyard bomb shelters and blackouts, intervals like in war torn countries, but to share alike, the many joys of Christmastide in perfect peace, is just cause for one and all to offer their gratitude.

Christmas Carolers will gather in groups to sing "To Our King" and as the sacred chimes toll out their songs, one and all, by being neighborly in doing some kindly deed for those less fortunate, can spread happiness to all corners of the earth, this Yuletide.

So to all little boys and girls in the land, Santa Claus asks that you go to bed early Christmas Eve, so he can make his rounds and get started back to the North Pole to begin planning his "Wonderland Toytown" for next year. Tuck yourself in, my young ones, and pleasant dreams! Santa Claus is coming to town!

Underwriters Hear Talk At Luncheon

George A. Smith, manager of one of Pittsburgh's branch offices of Metropolitan Life Insurance Co., spoke at yesterday's luncheon of New Castle branch of Pittsburgh Life Underwriters' Association in The Castleton. His subject was "Are You Coasting?"

Robert E. Hoose, branch president, presided and introduced Mr. Smith. He also introduced George T. Weinberger, former state senator and now assemblyman from Lawrence county's second district. President Hoose said the insurance men and their wives will enjoy a dinner party in The Castleton late in January. Thomas I. Elliott will be chairman of arrangements.

News Briefs From City Hall

Last night there was a fence at 512 Electric street. This morning there was no fence there. It had been stolen some time between dusk and dawn, according to a report made to police.

Police teletype in the city police station is humming constantly day and night, reporting criminal acts over the nation, describing persons wanted and articles stolen. Some of the thefts reported concern autos, furs, bicycles, explosives, fumigating gas, auto accessories, tools and money from cigarette machines.

Criminal acts throughout the state are reported each day providing they are considered important. It is estimated that there are 23,000 stones in the Washington monument.

The use of leather for making articles is very old. Primitive methods of curing skins were known to the ancient Egyptians, and in China specimens of leather have been discovered which proved to be over 3,000 years old.

On Display For Benefit
Of Public

The post rooms at 126 1/2 East Washington street, will be open each afternoon and evening from now until Christmas, where these toys can be seen. Christmas eve, members of the post will see that several hundred needy children receive two toys from the toy mission. A lighted tree also adds to the Christmas spirit at the post headquarters.

At the meeting of the post Thursday evening, Deputy Inspector General Harvey Schipp, of Chicago, a high official of the Eighth V. F. W. district was a guest of the post, and commended them on their Americanization program and other activities.

Plans were completed for a family night Christmas entertainment which will take place in the post rooms on Saturday evening, December 28.

SONG FESTIVAL

There will be a song festival at the Union Baptist church on December 22 at 3 p. m. The Perry Four of Youngstown, O., and the Dixie Echoes will sing. All choirs have been asked to take part.

"Giving money for Christmas spoils the sentiment," Ed. But it seems a beautiful sentiment if you get over fifty bucks.

Students Sing For Holiday Seal Sale

Six school students, three from George Washington Junior High and three from Ben Franklin Junior High, have been making the rounds of the various service clubs, singing carols. The youngsters represent the three "everyday kids" pictured on the Christmas seals this year. The six students sing under the sponsorship of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society and are doing their share to help promote the Christmas seal sale.

Following singing are from George Washington: June Young, Carl Cotton and Charles Shaw. Accompanist is Marjorie Allen.

From Ben Franklin: Antonio Palumbo, James Tindall and Betty Hogue. Accompanist is Miss Peggy Griffiths of the faculty.

Five-story buildings, weighing as much as 4,000 tons, have been moved.

dead whose virtues they discovered not when living?—It takes much marble to build the sepulchre. — Raleigh, N. C., is called by architects a perfect example of Doric architecture. It is 103 years old.

Christmas Leaves For Army Men Is Best Gift Of All

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—Men in the army got a substantial Christmas present from the war department Thursday—formal announcement that they will be able to go home for the holidays.
The department has authorized liberalization of furlough privileges during the Christmas and New Year's holidays, so as to permit more soldiers to visit their homes, the announcement said.
For those men who remain in camp, special Christmas dinners, religious services, entertainments and dances are being arranged, the department said.

U. S. To Admit 2,000 Refugees

Safe Haven Is Offered To War Refugees Of Superior Abilities

MORE THAN 1,000
VISAS ARE GIVEN

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 20.—The United States today offered safe haven for some 2,000 European refugees of "intellectual superiority, of education, of culture, of character," who face persecution at "the hands of autocracy."

The state department disclosed it has "unblocked" immigration quota lists to permit U. S. entry of "these brave men and women" who were forced into mass migration by Germany's blitzkriegs.

More than 1,000 visas have already been issued, chiefly for refugees from Holland, Belgium and France.
Visas for the rest of the group, compiled from lists submitted by various American committees, are being rapidly issued, the department said.

The unblocking method has opened the quotas of all countries except Germany and Poland, and they will be reopened in about two months, according to the department.

Opening of the quotas was accomplished by passing up persons topping the lists who cannot or desire not to claim U. S. entry and giving visas to those next on the lists.
Previously, persons at the top of the lists stayed there even though they could not use the visas and those following on the lists were "blocked" from coming to America.

"Refugees developed into a definite problem after the invasion of France," the department said. "Many persons had arrived in France to find an asylum from persecution at the hands of the totalitarian states. To these were added several millions who fled from Holland and Belgium."

"They all became migrants again and their numbers were doubled or trebled by residents of France—all in flight before the advancing German armies and the gestapo which followed in its wake."

The department said it has been careful and deliberate to prevent "enemies without from becoming enemies within." Of the more than 2,000 names agreed upon for visas, "about one dozen were found by the department to be persons whose presence in this country "would be prejudicial to the best interests" of the United States.

DAILY DOZEN

(From the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania)

National preparedness depends greatly on industrial production.
Industrial production depends on the health of the worker.

Injuries to workers are a great drain on industry.

The record in Pennsylvania this year is an appalling one.

There have been 91,674 industrial injuries up to November first.

Of these, 739 were fatal cases.

In October, there were 10,403 accidents with 101 deaths.

The tempo of industry has increased, more men are needed.

As younger men enter military service, older men enter industry.

The older men are not as keen and alert as younger men.

Many new workers are not familiar with good safety habits.

Industry must carry on—but carefully.

Neither men nor nations can waste their substance in riotous living without paying. But we'll have a great boom while arming—and that will take years.

South Side Club Names Officials

During a recent meeting members of the Prince of Montavano club, South Mill street, elected the following officers for 1941:

Dave Barkett, president; Dan De-Falso, vice president; Carmen Blun-do, financial secretary; Pat Alfara, recording secretary; Dave Williams, sergeant-at-arms; R. Turco, D. Gabriel and B. Rich, trustees.

Mayor Mayne Reports Letters From Senators

Mayor Charles B. Mayne submitted to council in session in city hall on Thursday, letters from Senators James J. Davis and Joe Guffey which were replies to missives asking federal aid in the development of the airport.

The federal government has allocated $40,000,000 for airports throughout the country.

Aid is to be given seven and not more than 11 airports in this state.
New Castle's airport was not listed as being given aid, hence Mayor Mayne's letter.

Senator Davis said he would be glad to seek aid for this city's airport and Senator Guffey asserted that were additional funds allotted for Pennsylvania airports, he would be pleased to urge that this city's airport be given consideration.

Application Blanks For U. S. Course Go To District Plants

Quantities of preliminary application blanks for the "engineering defense training course" to be conducted here for technical men of industry are being distributed to local plants and civic institutions by the Greater New Castle Association.

The federal government will pay expenses of the course while district colleges and universities will handle details. Classes start January 21 in New Castle and New Wilmington. Final registration will be in the Greater New Castle Association office January 15 and 16.

Application blanks are to be mailed by prospective course members to E. L. Keller, director of engineering extension of Pennsylvania State College, State College,
Pa., before January 4.

County Commissioners William R.

Walton and J. P. Travers were in Harrisburg on Thursday attending a conference concerning some proposed tax legislation which may come up in the next session of the General Assembly.

It really isn't necessary to remind you but the court house will be closed on Wednesday, December 25. Everybody gets the day off but the sheriff and his weeks are seven days long and 24 hours a day.

It probably is inconvenient to be in the county jail for a vacation but the food is good. Any day about 11:30 if you will drop in at the jail office you can get a whiff of appetizing food being prepared. Thursday it was bean soup flavored with ham and it smelled good.

Entry coupons must be mailed to The News at once—the deadline for them will be Saturday midnight if sent by mail, or Sunday midnight if dropped in the mail slot in the door of The News. Attractive prizes will lure many

Meeting of the New Castle Ministerial Association, scheduled for Monday, December 30, has been postponed until Monday, January 6, when the group will meet at 10:30 a. m. in the First Presbyterian church, corner of North Jefferson and Falls streets.

Dr. Robert Meade Patterson, pastor of Central Presbyterian church, will be the speaker.

PREFER GIN TO VODKA

Polish sailors on destroyers serving in the British navy now prefer gin to vodka because it is less fiery. So they have evolved a "gin gin" of their own. It is drunk neat with a couple of dashes of red pepper instead of bitters.

Connie Mack 78 On Next Monday

Win Or Lose, Connie Will Remain At Helm Of His Baseball Ship

By WATSON FENIMORE
(International News Service Writer)
Interviewed on the eve of his 78th birthday anniversary—which he'll celebrate Monday—Mack declined to make a flat prediction on the outcome of the league race. But he intimated how he feels in response to a question on the Yanks copping the pennant again.

"They may do that," he said, adding significantly: "I'd like to run second to them. I'd feel pretty good, I think, if I was the team that wound up right behind the Yanks next season."

He'd like to give himself a birthday present this year of a shiny, new contender for the league title but the best he looks for is a team considerably improved over last summer's tail-enders.

But win or lose, Mack is going to remain at the helm of his baseball ship. Even though his son, Earle, 48, is ready to step into his shoes. He thinks his serious illness of 1938 made him look his age, but his health is good and he's keeping on a diet to prolong his usefulness.

Urge Hunters To File Game-Kill

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, Dec. 20.—All game hunters in Pennsylvania today were cautioned to file their 1940 game-kill reports by Jan. 16, 1941, or subject themselves to two dollar fines. Every hunter is required to file a report, regardless of his success.

Hunters were asked by the state game commission either to file their reports immediately or do so just after the Christmas mailing rush, in order to cooperate with postal authorities during the heavy mailing period.

In filing their reports, hunters were advised that if the report stub, attached to the license, has been lost, it will be satisfactory to use a plain postal card or piece of paper provided the hunting license number is given along with the name of the individual.

A plaque, emblematic of the award, will be given Quinn at the annual baseball writers dinner February 2. Previous winners of the award were Miller Huggins, Bill Hanna, Babe Ruth, Wilbert Robinson, John McGraw, Walter Johnson, Connie Mack, Walter Marandville, Frank Frisch, Travis Jackson, Judge K. M. Landis, Bill Klem, Joe McCarthy, and Ed. Barrow.

New Grid Owner Only 26

ALEXIS THOMPSON AND CARL STORCK

New owner of the Pittsburgh Steelers pro grid club, Alexis Thompson, left, is only 26 years old. Thompson, New York millionaire, purchased the team for an estimated $150,000. He is shown with League President Carl Storck in Washington.

Breezy sport briefs—Richard "Dick" DeArment, the Texas Aggies' sensational freshman guard is spending the Yuletide vacation at his home in Bessemer, A. G. Capezutti, major domo at Bessemer has this to say about his protégé: "He is in the best condition that I have ever seen him. His legs look like a pair of oak trees. He tips the beams at 195. He shouldn't miss in 1941."

Phil H. Bridenbaugh will be honored in Beaver Falls on Saturday evening, December 28. Scribe Ernie Reed states that former Beaver Falls High athlete who played during Bridenbaugh's tenure as coach, have planned a gala testimonial dinner. The affair will start at 6:45 o'clock. Localities who contemplate attending can make reservations by calling Ellsworth Thomas, Beaver Falls 1401-R.

Another sports figure has joined Billy Conn's bandwagon. Al McCoy who has fought both men and who should know, says he likes Conn over Louis. A surprisingly large number of Louis followers hopped off the champ's train following that Boston setto. Since part of our job is sticking out our neck, here it goes again—Conn to decision Louis if and when they meet....

These Boston Red Sox have carded no less than 16 spring tussles with the Cincinnati Reds.... Jimmy Waddell, versatile Brooklyn Dodger player, ranks as one of the top tenpin bowlers in the major leagues. The southpaw has averaged 200 for the past two seasons—Jimmy Wilson, new boss of the Cubs has already named his "big four" Bill Lee, Claude Passeau, Larry French and Vern Olsen will trot to the mound in order next season....

Professional and collegiate football attendance figures for 1940 exclusive of the coming bowl clashes, reached close to 12,000,000.... If you plan attending the Sugar Bowl game, stay at home. All 70,000 seats were sold out as early as last week.... Fordham officials will tag along New York drinking water when the Rams leave for their Cotton Bowl game in Dallas....

Army Is After New Grid Coach

(International News Service)
WEST POINT, N. Y., Dec. 20.—A number of candidates, including such a prominent civilian as Earl Blaik, coach at Dartmouth, today were being mentioned as possible successors to Capt. Bill Wood, Army football coach.

Wood's three-year reign as grid mentor at the military academy came to an end yesterday when the war department in Washington ordered him back to active troop duty in line with the national preparedness program. He is to be stationed at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Blaik, a graduate of West Point and an assistant coach there for several seasons, was reportedly favored by the athletic board which is expected to convene within a few weeks to appoint a successor.

Others mentioned for the job were Maj. Bob Neyland, head coach at Tennessee; Capt. Lawrence (Biff) Jones, head coach of the Rose Bowl bound Nebraska Cornhuskers, and Harry Wilson, former Army all-American halfback. It was considered doubtful that Neyland or Jones would give up their present positions for the Army job.

John A. Thoren, of Newton, Mass., is shown putting in the Miami, Fla., Open Golf Tournament. He is wearing his army uniform. Thoren is the only professional in the tournament drafted and inducted into the army. He shot a 74 in the open round. (Central Press)

Favor Zivic To Defeat Jenkins

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Welterweight Champion Fritz Zivic today was rated a 2 to 1 favorite over Lightweight Champion Lew Jenkins and with that the fight mob sat back waiting to see who would be selected by the New York boxing commission to referee tonight's 10-round non-title battle between champions. There was a wide difference of opinion on probable outcome of the encounter but general agreement on one point, to wit:

That the third man in there may be the deciding factor. In keeping with the rules, his identity won't be revealed until a few moments before the start of the fight.

Chester Gibbons dropkicked 11 conversions in succession for Kansas until the Missouri game. In three years, he made 13 out of 15.

Gerson Is Host To Pearson Boys

More Than 150 Boys Enjoy Event Held In Pearson Center, Thursday Night

Amid an ideal Christmas setting, more than 150 members of the Pearson Street Boys' club frolicked at the second annual Yuletide party sponsored by Jack Gerson Thursday evening in the Pearson street center.

The boys played, sang, laughed, smiled, ate, enjoyed an appropriate program and then each received a handsome knife, presented by Gerson.

During the course of the event, Mr. Leonard introduced Mrs. Agnes Howley, Mrs. Harry Strudewant, Frank Baptiste, Rabbi Norman Diamond and Charles A. Landolf.

Charles Richards, Ben Ciccone, Angelo Filigenzi and Tex Richards were mainly responsible for the marked success of the occasion.

Dues—Teresa and Clara Dittora.

Neale Piloted W. & J. Eleven

Earle (Greasy) Neale, assistant grid coach at Yale and now head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers, has enjoyed a rather colorful career in the sports world.

Neale has coached various college teams in the East, including the Washington & Jefferson 1921 eleven which went to the Rose Bowl and played a scoreless tie with the University of California.

In addition, Neale played major league baseball with Cincinnati and was assistant manager of the St. Louis Cardinals in 1929 and 1930.

Church League Games Tonight

There are three basketball games listed for tonight in the New Castle Church League at the "Y" floor.

The first game starts at 7:45 o'clock and will find the St. Vitus battling the Epworth Methodist team in a feature game.

The second game on the card will send together the First Baptist and First Methodists, while the third game will pit the Second U. P. team, league leaders against the First Presbyterians in what should be a crackerjack team.

Business matters will be discussed. It was announced by Secretary Vic Connerly today.

Hal McCullough of Cornell completed three out of four passes attempted this season.

Sportsman's Council Will Meet Tonight

There will be an important meeting of the Sportsman's Council of Lawrence county tonight at the portable school house at Bessemer at 8 o'clock.

North Beaver

ANNIVERSARY PARTY
Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Davidson of Bessemer were pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening, December 17, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harmon had them as dinner guests in honor of their 46th wedding anniversary.

Early in the evening a group of relatives and friends numbering 30 gathered in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon and surprised Mr. and Mrs. Davidson. Cards and social chat furnished the entertainment.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Harmon, assisted by her daughter, Florence. A table of gifts was then placed before Mr. and Mrs. Davidson in honor of the happy occasion.

CANTATA
The community chorus will hold their Christmas cantata, "Night of Holy Memories," by Wilson, Sunday evening, December 22, in the North Beaver high school auditorium.

NORTH BEAVER NOTES
Mrs. Dora Conners of Bessemer spent Tuesday with friends here.

Mrs. George McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Flynn McKinney of Bradford have returned to their home, having spent a few days with the former's relatives here.

Carl Schweikert has improved and has been discharged from the New Castle hospital.

William Casko was a visitor with relatives in New Castle Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schuller of Poland, O., were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Pelger.

The senior class of North Beaver motored to Pittsburgh Wednesday and spent the day visiting many interesting places there.

National Hockey League magnates profess not to be worried about poor attendance. They contend they have the same trouble each early season. They have to wait until talk of football dies down, and the ice game becomes the No. 1 sport.

Steadier Tone In Market Trends

Trading Remains Quiet—Averages Unchanged About 11 O'Clock

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—The stock market developed a steadier tone today after the downturn of the preceding sessions.

Trading remained quiet, with first hour turnover of 200,000 shares vs. 230,000 in the same period yesterday.

The industrial, rail and utility averages were all unchanged at 11 o'clock, an unusual occurrence. Steels were better, with U. S. Steel up a sizeable fraction. Gains in the others were small. Motor shares were steady.

Eastman Kodak regained 2 points of yesterday's tumble of 3 points.

Aviations, weak yesterday, were steadier. Small gains were scored by Boeing and Glenn Martin.

General Electric was higher as Westinghouse moved up slightly.

The oils lacked a uniform trend. Texas Corp. slipped up slightly. Standard of New Jersey gave ground.

There was considerable pressure on the building shares. Johns Manville lost a point and U. S. Gypsum was off more.

Most rails improved slightly. Utilities were very quiet. The rubber shares were firm. Sears Roebuck rose almost a point in the mail orders.

Grains were up. Cotton eased. Other commodities were mixed. The bond market was irregular. Firmer tendencies developed in the London stock market.

County Board No. 2 Prepares For January Quota—No Definite Word

County Draft Board No. 1 at Ellwood City expects it will be asked to provide "about 10" draftees for the Army under its January quota. Board Member M. B. Poulton said today.

Poulton said state draft headquarters has mailed the board a memorandum indicating over 4,000 will be called from the entire state. The board awaits its definite quota.

The county board reported that its missing draftee, George William Wimer, "reported in" not long after The News reported that the board could not locate him. Wimer "unintentionally" put down a wrong address on his registration papers.

Poulton explained, "and he was very sorry he had to be paid that way."

Milk Dealers Have Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Dec. 20.—The Ellwood City Milk Dealers Association met last night in the Chamber of Commerce rooms with President Ed Smith presiding.

The association went on record to inform the D. C. S. that they wish to continue under the present State Milk Control board instead of under federal regulation. Reasons expressed for continuing under the present set-up were that local milk dealers were purchasing their milk from independent producers within a 10-mile radius and that they were paying the local farmers a much better price than the large Pittsburgh milk dealers were paying for out of the state milk.

A special committee made up of Ephraim Wilson, Herman Wilson, Earle Friday, Charles Wilson and Ed Smith is to confer with Chamber Secretary Denny Schill relative to informing the D. C. S. of the Ellwood City Milk Dealers situation.

Special guests were: O. Zeigler of Zellenople, Harold Burns and A. O. Dorman of New Wilmington and H. K. Edmunds of Ellwood.

Because of the holidays, it was decided to dispense with next week's meeting.

Dr. William G. Evans, school physician, suffered a fractured hip Thursday afternoon when he slipped and fell in his office. He is undergoing treatment at the local hospital where his condition is said to be satisfactory.

The condition of Earle Friday, prominent local dairyman, who has been confined to the Grove City hospital for the past three weeks suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. O'Brien of Pontiac, Mich., have returned home after visiting at the home of Mrs. Mary Conroy, Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Main and daughter, Thelma of Birmingham, Mich., are expected here soon to spend the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Main's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Reimer of Ewing Park.

Harry McCurdy, a medical student at the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, will arrive home tomorrow to spend the Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O.
